Learn More About San Diego County's Voting System

All voter centers will have a full deployment of accessible touchscreen ballot marking devices. These devices can bring up every ballot type in one of five languages and produce a readable paper ballot. Because of this device, voters can vote in person at any vote center in the county.

This device does not store, tabulate, or count any votes, and does not store voter information.

After the voter confirms their selections on the device, the voter will print their ballot in the voting booth with the attached printer. The system prints a readable paper ballot showing the voter's selections along with a secure barcode. The barcode does not store voter information, it is used to tabulate results at the Registrar of Voter's office.

Voters can review their ballot, place it in a secrecy sleeve, and give it to the poll worker to place it in the ballot box to be counted at the Registrar's office. Once placed inside the ballot box, your ballot is officially cast!

COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO
Member of the Board of Supervisors – District No. 1 (Short Term)

PALOMA AGUIRRE
Mayor of Imperial Beach

AGE: 47

Families are struggling and government just isn't getting the job done. We need new leaders who act boldly, fight on our side and get results. We need Paloma Aguirre.

Paloma Aguirre has led the fight to clean up the Tijuana River toxic sewage crisis. While career politicians failed to act, Paloma stepped up – demanding action from Washington and securing $600 million to stop cross-border sewage poisoning South County.

Paloma Aguirre takes on tough fights most politicians avoid – and wins change. Paloma closed shady loopholes out-of-state landlords exploited to double rents on local families. She leads San Diego's clean energy alternative, which has provided lower rates than SDG&E and held down price hikes. As crime surged elsewhere, Paloma kept IB among the safest cities in San Diego County.

Paloma Aguirre isn't like career politicians. A first-generation Mexican-American, Paloma put herself through USD, was a community organizer in neglected communities, and even surfed competitively – she's not afraid of making waves.

As our Supervisor, Paloma Aguirre will hold County government accountable for its failures on the cost of living, reducing homelessness, fighting crime, and cleaning up the sewage crisis. While downtown politicians fail to confront the problems everyday people face, Paloma Aguirre will fight on our side and get results.

CAROLINA CHAVEZ
Chula Vista Deputy Mayor

AGE: 41

Our communities are at a crossroads. Challenges like economic instability, homelessness, soaring housing costs, and public health crises demand proven leadership.

For over 20 years, I've strengthened our region through healthcare access, economic development, and public service. As Chula Vista's Deputy Mayor, I've delivered solutions that uplift families, grow businesses, and create safer neighborhoods.

As your County Supervisor, I will address our communities' basic needs— food security, housing affordability, and economic opportunity—the foundation of a better quality of life.

With a clear vision and a proven record, I will:

Expand Economic Opportunity: Create good-paying jobs, support small businesses, and ensure equitable access to opportunity.

Build Safer Communities: Equip public safety with the resources to safeguard neighborhoods while building trust and equity.

Address Homelessness: Expand mental health care, housing, and job access to rebuild lives and improve safety.

Champion Housing Affordability and Public Health: Reduce housing costs, combat food insecurity, and tackle the Tijuana River pollution.

Together, we can build stronger, more vibrant communities. I humbly ask for your vote to continue this important work.

Mayor McCann championed hiring hundreds of new Firefighters and Police Officers. As Supervisor, McCann will fully fund the Sheriff's Department.

COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO
Member of the Board of Supervisors – District No. 1 (Short Term)

VIVIAN MORENO
Councilmember

AGE: 42

San Diego County government is broken. This is the second special election for supervisor in just two years. The mental health, drug abuse, and homelessness crisis continues to get worse, and South County residents are spending hours stuck in traffic because we don't receive our fair share of transportation resources.

I am running for County Supervisor to ensure that South County receives the resources and leadership it deserves.

Since 2018, I've served as Councilmember for South San Diego, delivering real results. I funded eleven different parks in neighborhoods that desperately need them. I secured funding to pave streets, hire police officers and firefighters, and build more homes that are affordable to families. I've also opposed bad financial decisions, such as the 101 Ash Street Settlement.

As County Supervisor, I will fight to ensure families can afford to live in San Diego. I will protect public safety by hiring more firefighters and deputies, and investing in mental health and substance abuse services. I will fight to eliminate the tolls on SR-125 and invest in reducing traffic congestion.

I'm proud to raise my family in South County and will work tirelessly to create a healthier, safer, and more prosperous future for all residents.
